Dear Fellow Stockholder:

I am writing to you today to make you aware that the CNL Lifestyle Properties Board of Directors has unanimously approved a $2.10 per share estimated net asset value (NAV) as of November 30, 2016. This value takes into consideration our pending sale agreement with EPR and Ski Resort Holdings and the $0.50 per share distribution made in November. CNL Lifestyle Properties has established this estimated NAV to assist broker-dealers in determining statement values for their client's accounts. The purpose of this letter is to simply make you aware of the revised estimated NAV and requires no action on your part.

On November 2, 2016, we announced a definitive agreement to sell our remaining assets for $830 million and move toward the dissolution of the company. Based on the pending transaction, we indicated that the total range of distributions is expected to be between $2.60 and $2.75 per share of common stock. At the same time, we also announced a special distribution of $0.50 per share, which was sent to you on November 14, 2016.

Prior to these announcements, CNL Lifestyle Properties' most recent estimated NAV per share was $3.05 as of December 31, 2015. As a reminder, this took into consideration the $1.30 per share special distribution you received in December 2015.

In closing, I want to remind you that stockholder approval is necessary for the pending sale of our remaining assets and the liquidation and dissolution of the company. We are currently waiting for the Securities and Exchange Commission to review the final proxy statement which outlines this proposal in detail. Once it is approved, you will receive it in the mail and I ask you to take the time to review it carefully. This transaction cannot occur without your vote, so please be sure to vote your shares as soon as possible. Voting early will help us reduce expenses related to the proxy solicitation.

Sincerely,
